DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because of the blank boxes of figures 2 and 3. Please insert short descriptive labels to define what is contained in the blank boxes. In figure 1 insert a label for box 14 too. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement-drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the series converters and isolators must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). The drawings only show parallel-connected converters. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement-drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2838

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5, 13, 15, 19, 20, 22, 23, 28, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Takahashi et al (USP 5,768,117).

Takahashi (see figure 1) discloses a power source (AcS) a set of two or more converters connected in parallel (Con1 and Con2), an electrical supply line (Bu3) coupled to supply a required voltage and discloses the use of power correction circuitry. See Summary of the invention. The isolators are the transformers circuitry (Tr).

6. Claims 1-5, 13-15, 18-23 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Yahiro (USP 5,530,635). Yahiro the claimed invention see figure 1 and 4, and column 1 lines 1-30.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 6, 16, 17 and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yahiro (USP 5,530,635).

Yahiro discloses the claimed invention except for the bus range of 300 – 400V and having a load consumption of 600 W to 4,000W and an output voltage converter output being greater than 48V. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the bus range of 300 – 400V and having a load consumption of 600 W to 4,000W and an output voltage converter output being greater than 48V, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Claims 7-12, 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yashiro (USP 5,530,635) in view of Meyer et al. (USP 4,894,764) Yashiro discloses the claimed device (see above paragraphs) except for the use of a series connected converters that provide differing voltages to the various load circuits. Meyer discloses (see figure 7) that it is known in the art to provide the use of a series connected converters that provide differing voltages to the various load circuits. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the use of a series connected converters that provide differing voltages to the various load circuits of Meyer with the power supply modules of Yashiro, in order to provide a independent voltages to the various load elements at the output of the circuitry.
